Dare to Dream

The United States is a country of diversity. Each state offers a unique location that people from across the globe dream to visit. If the one desires to explore the genuine and picturesque American culture and enjoy the surrounding space Traverse City, Michigan is the dream destination to explore. It is not among the top international touristic attractions. In fact, it will not overwhelm with foreign and native explorers, as one can spot in New York, Chicago or Florida. The peculiarity of the destination relates to the enjoyment of seniority, peace, and water. The city is situated within the national lakeshore, having Lake Michigan as one of the central destinations for people to enjoy the waterfront vacation lifestyle. The range of water activities is vast for family travel, friends as well as individual tourists. The city attracts vineyards, Sleeping Bear Dunes, Cherry Festival, food, and downtown. Traverse City reflects a perfect relaxation holiday. It has an airport, what enables travelers from across the country and the world to conveniently reach the city. The broad array of hotels and apartments for rent will ensure the comfort of the holiday. The majority of the resorts is waterfront, incorporating the views as a part of the travel experience. However, the quality of food and wine attract the majority of visitors across the whole country. It is a perfect location for wine tasting and gastro-tourism. The Moomers

Homemade ice cream farm along with the Cherry Republic product line will lure into explore the action of local restaurants and cafes. According to Tkaczyk (n.p.), it is rated as the most expensive city to stay in the country's Midwest. However, the price bears the quality and enjoyment of the stay. It is the desired location during all seasons of the year.

According to Manzullo (n.p.), the Sleeping Bear Dunes were rated as one of the best beaches on Earth by National Geographic. It is only a short drive from Traverse City downtown area. There are various activities for different types of visitors. Moreover, the historic downtown area is one of the few locations across the country to immerse in an actual atmosphere of American culture. From bookshops and restaurants to local clothing stores, it offers a unique way of interaction and shopping experience for the visitors. The summer Cherry Festival is a unique attraction. It combines the presentation of an amusement park with the choice of a Cherry Queen, charity work, and other enjoyable activities. In contrast to more popular travel destinations, the peculiarity of the holiday in Traverse City is the ability to experience the real local lifestyle, behavior, and values. Overall, the Northern part of Michigan is a secure and beautiful part of the United States for people to explore. Despite being on a more expensive range, it provides a uniquely enjoyable experience. Traverse City will be attractive to different people. For me, it is a different lakeshore with the most mesmerizing views. I enjoy waterfront living and tend to look for holidays that are centered on the water. The serenity, security, and hospitality of the region attract to a visit. The quality of food and wine are as interesting for any traveler, what makes Traverse City a dream destination for me during this summer and a top recommendation for everyone interested in experiencing real American waterfront lifetime.
